Nebraska Statutes 2011 General Index

Index Explanation

This index is a topical index for the Revised Statutes of Nebraska. The index is divided alphabetically into index headings.

A capitalized, bold-face entry is an index heading. There are three types of index headings:

1. Topic headings;
2. Named acts found in the statutes; and
3. Cross references to other index headings.

Every topic heading or named act heading is listed in the index under at least one and often many other topic headings. The topical framework for the index headings is the Topic Headings Outline that follows this explanation.

Topic headings and named act headings usually have a “See generally” entry immediately following the index heading. This entry is a topic heading in the topic headings outline which the given entry is under. The intent is to give the index user an idea of where the entry fits into the subject-matter scheme and where to look in the index for related information.

The index uses common terms such as “DRUNK DRIVING” as well as technical legal terminology in index headings and cross references to help the index user locate information. There are a few index headings which list all such items found in the statutes, e.g. “ACTS, NAMES OF”, “FUNDS, NAMES OF”, “BOARDS”, and “CRIMES AND OFFENSES”, but in general, the index is not a word search vehicle since the statutes are available in many word searchable computer formats.
