

LEGISLATIVE BILL 93

Approved by the Governor February 10, 1975

Introduced by Kennedy, 21

AN ACT to amend section 16-308, Revised Statutes Supplement, 1974, relating to cities of the first class; to preclude mayors from being administrators; and to repeal the original section.

Be it enacted by the people of the State of Nebraska,

Section 1. That section 16-308, Revised Statutes Supplement, 1974, be amended to read as follows:

16-308. Each city of the first class shall have such departments and appointed officers as shall be established by ordinance passed by the city council, which shall include a city clerk, treasurer, engineer and attorney, and such officers as may otherwise be required by law. Except as provided in Chapter 19, article 6, the mayor may, with the approval of the city council, appoint the necessary officers, as well as an administrator, who shall perform such duties as prescribed by ordinance. Except as provided in Chapter 19, article 6, the appointed officers may be removed at any time by the mayor with approval of a majority of the council. The office of administrator may not be held by the mayor, ~~with the approval of the council, or by any other person if a person other than the mayor is appointed administrator; such person~~ The appointed administrator may concurrently hold any other appointive office provided for in this section and section 16-325. ~~if the council assigns the duties of the administrator to the mayor, it may compensate the mayor for performance of such administrative duties. Such compensation shall be in addition to the salary provided for performance of the duties of the office of mayor. The compensation paid for performance of the duties of administrator shall be paid to the mayor notwithstanding section 16-326.~~ In case of an emergency, the mayor may appoint such special police as shall be required, and he is hereby authorized to call on any male inhabitants of the city, between the ages of eighteen and fifty, to aid in enforcing the law of said city.

Sec. 2. That original section 16-308, Revised Statutes Supplement, 1974, is repealed.
